FEMININE / SPIRITUAL LEADS ...

16 - ENTHUSIASM

And thou shalt have joy and gladness ... (Luke 1:14). Enthusiasm means to be possessed by God. When you have an absorbing or a lively interest in some project, cause or subject, i.e., when you are fired up with the idea and have gladness in your heart, you are bound to succeed. Moreover, your enthusiastic mood will be communicated to others, as enthusiasm is contagious.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven (Matthew 5:16). You glorify God, the Father of all, when you become a channel of the Divine and you let His intelligence, wisdom, love, harmony and abundance flow through you. To sacrifice is to make sacred; i.e., you dedicate all your work to God, knowing that you are directed and governed over by a Divine wisdom. As you practice this, you will find all your ways are pleasantness and all your paths are peace.

4th Line Changing:

Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not (Jeremiah 33:3). As you keep looking to the Inner Source of all blessings, knowing that God is guiding you and prospering you in all ways, you will discover that new creative ideas come to you from your subliminal depths, and you will advance beyond your fondest dreams.

2 - THE RECEPTIVE

This is the female aspect of God, sometimes referred to as the Virgin Mary, Sophia of the Persians, the Passive Principle, the Holy Ghost, the Universal Subconscious, the Great Fabricator, or the Law. It is called the Heart (subconscious) in the Bible; also, the Law, the woman, and the wife. The Bible says the husband shall be head of the wife, meaning that whatever the male aspect impregnates the female aspect of itself with, the latter brings it forth in the image and likeness of the pattern or image implanted in it.

For our purposes in this book, look upon this second hexagram K'un as your own subconscious mind, which is your creative medium. Your subconscious has the "know-how" of all creation. Your conscious, choosing mind selects an idea, plan or purpose, and when you turn over this idea with faith and confidence to your deeper mind, it brings it to pass in its own way. The Universal Subconscious, of which your subconscious is an integral part, knows how the whole world came in to being. Your subconscious created your body and knows all the processes and functions of it. It is one with boundless wisdom and Infinite Intelligence. Remember, your subconscious mind will bring forth to fruition any pattern your conscious mind focuses attention on and nourishes and sustains quietly and with confidence. Your subconscious* is that phase of your mind which brings all things to pass.

Your subconscious is pregnant with all the powers, attributes and qualities of God. It is called Mary in our Bible, who is already pregnant with the Holy Ghost, meaning the Holy Spirit or the Spirit of Wholeness. It is pregnant with all the powers of the God-head and has the know-how of accomplishment. You can use the powers of your subconscious two ways: Think good and good will follow; think evil and evil will follow. Think on whatsoever things are true, noble and God-like and you will reap a wonderful harvest of health, happiness and peace.

You can do whatever you like in your subconscious in the same manner as you sow seeds in your garden. Let your dominant conviction be "God loves, governs, guides and directs me in all ways," and your outer world will magically melt into the image and likeness of your dominant conviction.

16 - HARMONIZE / ENTHUSIASM

All events in nature follow the path of least resistance and harmonious natural order. Rivers cut through the most yielding areas in their downward rush to the oceans. The tides rhythmically undulate to the pull of the moon, while the moon orbits on the tether of the earth's gravity. The earth is held in check on its axis by the sun, and there follow the seasons in fixed regularity. All things in life HARMONIZE with these laws and patterns, including the myriad affairs of man.

Within society there are fixed traditions, popular opinions, and irresistible sympathies that instinctively spring from the nature of mankind. When you wish to lead, influence, govern, or arouse others, you must first align your values to those held by society. In this way you gain the attention, enthusiasm, and cooperation of others. Prohibitions that run contrary to the sentiment and life-style of people create resentment. Unpopular wars cannot be waged without shattering the public spirit and causing disharmony.

During this time you should seek to analyze the essential nature of the moment. If you can grasp the direction of the tendencies around you, you can parallel them and accomplish great deeds. New ideas, inventions, and innovations can now be successfully developed and promoted. Penetrate the popular sentiment of society, anticipate what will be needed and supported, and choose able helpers who will be enthusiastically attracted to your compelling inspiration.

The Chinese compared this time to the composition of music. The persuasive and mathematical purity of harmony in music inspires the hearts of the listeners in a mass experience. The forceful mystery of this tonal relationship can be demonstrated as an invisible language of our perceptions of reality. The profound experiences of art, education, history, healing, religion, and patriotism are expressed in music. People are inspired, in times of harmonizing, to feelings of universal perfection and truth. So powerful are these moments of perfect harmony that Confucius was prompted to say: "He who could wholly comprehend this sacrifice could rule the world as though it were spinning on his hand."

This hexagram suggests that you are now able to HARMONIZE socially and communicate fully your ideas and interests. Your general resonance with the mood of the time should make you particularly charismatic in your personal relationships.

You can now readily put yourself in touch with your true nature in order to further the development of your character. Pay attention to your bodily rhythms, observe your inherent character traits, and listen to your inner voice. Moreover, this state of mind can enhance your health and well-being. You can instill in your body an enthusiasm for life by harmonizing your spirit with the cosmic order.

4th Line Changing:

Harmonious times are approaching. It is safe to exhibit your confidence in the future. Your attitude will attract others to you, who will co-operate in your endeavors. In this way you can accomplish great deeds.

2 - NATURAL RESPONSE / THE RECEPTIVE

The yielding and responsive quality of nature is the focus of this time. Nature follows with sensitivity the demands of the seasons. It reproduces, adapts, and evolves itself appropriately; it heals itself when injured and deftly maintains a balanced economy. Nature is the responsive, yielding background for all events on earth. The power of this time lies in reacting with a NATURAL RESPONSE to the myriad things around you, a response in keeping with the laws of nature.

At this time you are dealing with realities rather than potentials. You can know only the situation around you but not the forces behind it. Therefore you should not act independently or try to lead others. If you do, you will lose the way and become confused. Because you are not connected to the forces at work in the situation, you need friends and helpers to accomplish your aims. If you can accept this you will find guidance. Once you respond naturally and allow yourself to be led, even the greatest goals can be attained.

By maintaining a pose of NATURAL RESPONSE even in the complex matters of business and politics, you can be assured that you are attuned to your own nature. At this time, such an attitude is of singular importance in your relations with worldly affairs. Through the help of friends and associates, you will be led into the best possible position. Above all, restrain the impulse to lead assertively in these situations.

You can begin to rely too much upon your own strength and forget that strength can be perilous when not directed properly. This time is a subtle study in non-action as a way of attaining real meaning in your life. Relationships will be a test of this concept. It is important now to be particularly feeling and receptive of those dear to you. Allow them to take the initiative and assume the lead. Hold, at this time, to traditional values in the managing of interpersonal affairs and avoid aggressive attempts to get your way.

Within your Self, spend time alone in objective thought as you consider the direction of your life. Meditate upon the idea that everything on earth, good and evil, is supported by nature. Strive to broaden your attitudes and opinions and view the world with an open mind. Objectivity will keep your NATURAL RESPONSE pure while it gives you great stamina of character and inner calm in dealing with the outside world.
