FIRE ~ 6 ~ Glory ~ The struggle has been difficult; it is as if you have fought a battle and now all you have left is the bloody fruit which you have won; make an offering of this fruit, surrender your winnings, to move into a state of harmony and beauty; you must understand that glory, however much you covet it, is a brief and fleeting thing; the truth is that which endures deep inside of yourself over time.

You are now moving into a new stage of being. You experience newness, green-ness, wetness. You feel reborn into a state of higher light and basic goodness. It is as if the light of spring has come!

At first, like a colt with its first uncertain steps, you may feel doubtful. But the light into which you emerge, after a transitory stay in darkness, is brilliant and beautiful. It is light by contrast to the darkness you have known and it grows directly out of allowing yourself to experience all things, both dark and light.

As a result of the battles you have fought, and your excursions into a chaotic darkness, you have tapped your inner light. The inner light is shining and white, hot, burning and eternal. It is bright, clear, clean and pure, not heavy or dense.

Technically, light triggers the functional activity of the eye, the organ of sight. As a form of radiant energy traveling at 186,000 miles per second, light illuminates the way, making sight possible. Through your struggles, you have come to SEE clearly. Seeing clearly means that you are experiencing a maturation of understanding. On the Tree of Life, the Sixth Sphere is the Circle of Tiphareth, the sphere of the unification of Wisdom & Understanding. This sphere is your stage at the Six of Fire. It symbolizes the birth of a holy child, or, in the individual, the onset of Christ-, Buddha-, or Krishna-like consciousness. As you are reborn in Christ-consciousness, you come into a profound balance.

To come into balance, you must understand your patterns of creativity, work, rationality, and interaction. When all such forces blend harmoniously and stand in equal balance, Glory is the result. As you are reborn in light, the mediating force of your inner Self stands like a fulcrum, continually balancing the great forces of action, receptivity, construction and destruction. Your old and new values compromise and are united in harmony. Then you reap the benefits of all your hard work and times of Struggle (Five of Fire). You look back over your personal biography and say: So THAT'S what it has led to. When viewed in the new light, all of your past actions suddenly make sense.

The most important realization of the Six of Fire is that there is deep within you, a harmonious internal flame, one which cannot be quelled. This is the force that keeps you in balance. It is the beautiful and glorious flame of primal spirit which burns eternally, tempered by the feminine influence of goodness, loyalty and devotion. Recognizing that this beautiful flame burns within is the greatest fruit of all the difficult battles you have fought.

The test of the Six of Fire is to yield up, or OFFER, the fruit of your battle. To yield the glorious discovery of the inner light to a still higher force - one that is beyond the boundaries of your Self - is the challenge of the Six. If you divide and offer your internal flame in service to the One, just as Fire multiplies by dividing, your flame will surely grow.

FIRE ~ 2 ~ Convergence

Unfocused energy becomes clear and polarized; you feel you now have a strong direction; you are making changes spiritually, emotionally, intellectually and physically; while you may go through various struggles, your courage in starting an enterprise at this time will eventually pay off; maintain your own internal sense of balance as you begin your new activities.

WATER ~ 9 ~ Rainbow Mirror

You feel a strong sense of internal integrity and inner security; you are enjoying a strong sense of self-esteem; you are peaceful with your sense of inner joy; you have accepted yourself and that has given you a new sense of wisdom and harmony.

~ ADDITIONAL* Insight ~

KEY II ~ The High Priestess

All knowledge of dark and light forces is good; every experience contains a message for growth; listen and you will hear the message of your own inner teacher guiding you in this mysterious time; attune to faith; you are accessing hidden or secret knowledge; be aware of all signals in your environment; attune to impulses; remember, retaining MEMORY is the third mode of empowerment; the gift of insight is now at hand.
