

How the *Friday* Program Came to Be ...

I'd like to introduce you to GloLady ~ Lisa Landis of Asheville, NC. We connected some years ago when I came across some of her amazing spiritual photography. And while she does a multitude of things, one of them is producing and hosting the first ever *LIVE* International/Global talk show where she has diverse and interesting guests, facilitating discussions on a wide variety of issues facing the local community, humanity and the planet.

KarmicTools is featured during the last half-hour of GloLady's show. Every Friday, I join them to share my thoughts on the current energies and astrological alignments. If/when you're in Asheville, NC/USA, this program can be viewed on local cable or you can join us in the *LIVE* studio audience. If you are in other parts of the world, you can Watch Live Online at URTV.org and call-in with your comments or questions. (Please check URTV's Local Listings for FRI/*Glo' Karmic* LIVE.)

I do not have video capability at this time, however, the *LIVE* Audio Forecast ~ the KarmicTools half-hour segment is available here with an Archives of previous weeks. The latest will be uploaded over the weekend and show here, with the most recent at the top.

Post Program ~ 4.22.2011 was the final Glo'Karmic show. GloLady will continue her community work and I will continue to upload a Weekly Audio. It was an amazing run and I am extremely grateful for *love and support* Lisa and the whole Asheville family extended me all these years.
