Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Sagittarius

Open covenants, openly arrived at should be your stock in trade here -- at least, that's what will go over the best and make you welcomed into any situation. Be forthright and honest, or at least play that part, and you'll fit right in. Just be aware that some may try to slip one past you, so smack them if they try it.

Midheaven in Libra

You can expect to be judged fairly here, especially if you are willing to take the local situation seriously and show it. A little extra gravitas goes a long way, even in lightweight affairs. You can exercise a steadier hand here than you might expect, all you have to do is take on the part and be believable.

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Moon Sqr AS (Medium)

Getting your feelings across here may be a challenge, and you may have to repeat yourself more than once to achieve it. It may be partly about relating to the local culture, partly that you are challenged to put things into words you had taken for granted before in your previous situation.

Moon in Ninth House

If you come here to expand your emotional horizons, you've come to the right place. A feeling of elbow room makes breathing easier, if only because you've got new situations to consider and can move beyond the old for a time. Once you open the door, however, expect your heart to grow a size larger.

Natal Mars Sqr MC (Medium)

It might be a good thing to put your finger in the wind before you make any rash moves here, as there is the possibility of your maneuvers being misread and working against you in the marketplace. Attempts at self-promotion can be either overdone or under-supported, requiring reworking until you're burning at maximum efficiency.

Mars in Seventh House

There's a lot of free energy floating around here for you to draw on if you let someone else take a turn at the wheel. Willing help is not hard to find, as long as you are willing to share on an equal basis. Similarly, enthusiastic personal partners are waiting to take a crack at you if you crack your door.

Natal Mercury On DS (Medium)

You can lead with your head here in ways that might be more difficult elsewhere. Somehow what you say will get across more clearly and your ability to analyze situations will be particularly strong. In a similar vein, you'll be able to pick up on the local lingo especially well; so if you have to go to a second language, you'll be able to do so more swiftly and communicate well despite initial language barriers. It is as if you find a shared mindset which you can immediately address because you already know what's being said, since it's what you were talking about to begin with. Remember, however, that head, heart, and hand are different functions, and though you may agree intellectually, there may be other subtexts that aren't so unusually in tune, so don't presume you've got everything surrounded just because you think you do. Agreements spoken or put on paper may come with ease, but take care that when the discussion is over you are all really on the same page at unspoken levels as well. When all is said and done, what's done is done and what's said may be only worth the paper it's written on. Nevertheless, you've got a distinct working advantage here.

Mercury in Seventh House

This can be just the place to come for an influx of ideas from new associates, others in your line of interest or work. The new partner that perfectly fills out the other part of your personal plans may be awaiting you here, so keep an eye out. At any rate, you'll find lots to think about if you let others in.

Natal Sun Sqr MC (Medium)

What they say about you here may not accurately reflect the person you really are inside, so some extra steps to get out the PR would probably be a good idea. If they don't get the message the first time, do a follow-up until the real you is what's being represented to the general public. Speak up for yourself, then do it again.

Sun in Seventh House

You're likely to find yourself in a partnering state of mind here, so feel free to look for assistance of the best possible kind. There's help to be found and pleasures to be shared, so don't feel you have to go solo. In fact, you'll do better under any circumstances if you link up with a local, whatever the arrangement.

Natal Saturn Sxt DS (Mild)

You appear to carry a little more weight here than you might, and inaction will often appear to be the voice of experience and patience rather than indecision. Once you pick up and get going, you've got a lot on your side, so leave drag racing to others who will look nervous and uncertain by comparison.

Saturn in Fourth House

You needn't live in a palace to get along well here -- and you shouldn't expect one, either. Sparse digs and simple décor are sufficient to fit in with the style you adopt and you'll have better things, or people, to lavish your resources on. Back to basics, classic taste, and delineated elegance are your ideal surroundings.

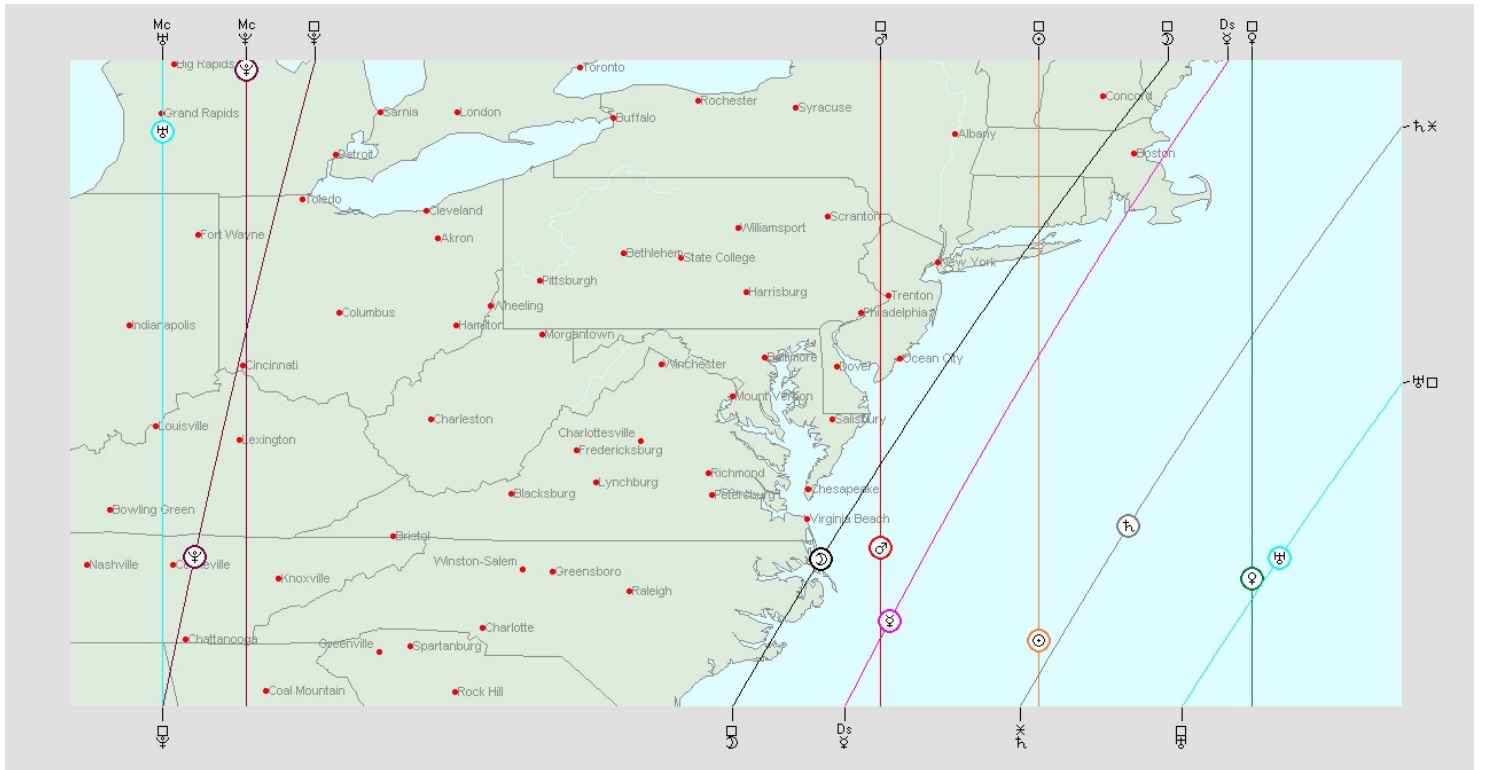

Natal Pluto Sqr AS (Mild)

Situations have a way of forcing themselves on you here, and you on them. It can seem easier to push and shove than work things out, but when that happens, it all just escalates and nothing gets done. Knowing when to back off, and whom to back off from, are the learning challenges here so you don't waste time in needless struggle.

Pluto in Ninth House

They say there are two topics to avoid with in-laws and outlaws: religion and politics. That goes double here, as you can easily knock heads over issues you can't really do anything about except fight over. If your approach is really superior, you needn't feel compelled to enforce it. If you do, you should rethink it.
